Mar Thoma Church Recognized by the City of Glendora For their Contribution to Glendora Police Department's "Operation Blue Christmas" Project

On January 16, 2013 members of the Mar Thoma Church were recognized for their contribution to the Glendora Police Department's "Operation Blue Christmas" which provides help at the holidays to four families selected by the Glendora Police Department each year. As a result of Mar Thoma's generosity, along donations received from the community, the four families received Christmas trees, food and gifts that that made their Christmas a little bit brighter. The Mar Thoma Church received a Certificate of Recognition from the Glendora City Council for partnering with the Police Department to
